

A pic of Luka standing on a balcony lead to the address of that building.

Looking at the background of the balcony pic, you see a street intersection with a gas station located on the corner. A group member identified it as a Petro-Canada location, and I read a blog that mentioned Luka coming out of a Condo/Apartment in Etobicoke.

Using Google maps, I searched for Petro-Canada locations in Etobicoke and came up with 10 results. Looking at a "street view" of each station eventually lead us to find this exact Petro-Canada station located at 830 Burnhamthorpe Road, Toronto, ON.

We then looked for and found the building the balcony pic was taken in which is 340 Mill Rd, Toronto, ON.
